

PRESS RELEASE

CONTACT: Mayor's Office
861-5301
27 June, 2007

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky congratulates the elementary and secondary graduates from the Borough of Woodbine.

Graduating from Woodbine Elementary School are: Stacey W. Baez, Jr., Ronald Lee Barrington, Charles A. Bland, Stacey Renee Bolling, Tatiana Lynn Broughton, William Donte Broughton, Crystal Tiana June Fitzpatrick, Nichole Lee Gorman, Valerie Guzman, Alyssa Denay Harris, Clarissa Marie Marrero, Adrian John Martinez, Joshua Leon Murray, Tiffany Ariel Olivieri, Kayla Marie Ortiz, Juan Perez, Jr., Mercedes Marie Price, Jose Ramos, Johnny A. Santiago, Matthew James Thomas, Kristina Marie Tolbert.

Receiving awards were: Borough Student Government Award ,Alyssa Harris; Philip DeSantis Award (for Service to the School), William Broughton; Chief School Administrator Award (Highest Academic Average), Stacey Bolling and Crystal Fitzpatrick; Woodbine Volunteer Fire Company Award (Highest Science Average), Stacey Bolling; America Legion Award (for Civics & Citizenship), Clarissa Marrero; Knights of Columbus (Highest Academic Average, boy and girl) , Stacey Bolling and Stacey Baez; Puerto Rican Action Committee (High Academic Performance), Tiffany Olivieri and Alyssa Harris; John and Mary Horne Award, Stacey Baez; AARP Scholarship (Most Improved), Mercedes Price and Jose Ramos; Ruth and Charles Zweigenbaum Memorial Award, Nichole Lee Gorman; Elmer and Rose Hankrson Scholarship (High Academic Performance), Mercedes Price and Crystal Fitzpatrick; Viera Family Kindness Award, Tatiana Broughton; Viera Family Physical Fitness Award, Ronald Barrington and Alyssa Harris.

Graduating from Bishop McHugh Regional Catholic School was Dakota Jo Lewis, who received honors for the highest grade average in language arts.

Graduating from Millville Senior High were: Joseph Anthony Acosta, Ryan Broughton, Roger Castillo, Jasmine Edwards, Matthew Farrington, Kiara Givens, Daniel Love, Edgard Rivera, Aaron Warner, and Michael Young.

Roger Castillo received the newly inaugurated Puerto Rican Action Committee $500 scholarship for a graduating senior from Woodbine.

Graduating from Wildwood Catholic High School were Ashley Gray and Mary Elizabeth Zenyuk.

Graduating from Cape May County Technical School were: Joshua Benson, Connie Fisher, Luis Guzman, Brian Lopez, William Martinez, Kimberly Player, Matthew Revak, and Jodie Schweibinz.

Connie Fisher received a $500 scholarship from the New Jersey Association of Counties and Verizon; both Ms. Fisher and Jodie Schweibinz received scholarships from ACCC.

Graduating from Holy Spirit High School was: Dylan Kosten.