WOODBINE CELEBRATES WEEK OF THE YOUNG CHILD

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that Woodbine will be celebrating the Week of the Young Child from April 21 through April 25, 2014, with a theme of “Early Years are Learning Years”.

Woodbine Elementary School District has planned a week full of activities to celebrate this very special event:

Friday, April 25: parents/guardians of the pre-K through third grade students are invited to come for a small breakfast and to watch a short performance by the pre-K to third grade students.

“I hope and encourage that a parent or family member of each child will be able take part in at least some of those activities celebrate the Week of the Young Child and I welcome our Head Start children who will be joining in this celebration,” added Mayor Pikolycky. “I hope to be joining in during the week for another chance to read to Mrs. Newman’s first grade as part of our partnership in the Mayor’s Book Club.”

Mrs. Newman’s first grade class at Woodbine Elementary was chosen to participate in the New Jersey State League of Municipalities Education Foundation Fifth Annual Mayor’s Book Club which is a partnership with Richard Stockton College of New Jersey. (Stockton College also has a branch campus in Woodbine.)
