LT. GOV. GUADAGNO SWEARS IN MAYOR PIKOLYCKY, NEW COUNCILMEN BENNETT & CRUZ AT WOODBINE'S ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTEENTH SWEARING-IN

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that Lt. Gov. Kim Guadagno sworn him for his seventh term as Mayor of Woodbine on January 7, 2015, addressing a packed room filled to capacity with local residents, County representatives, and dignitaries from the tri-county area.

Also sworn in by the Lt. Gov. were Councilmen David Bennett and Hector Cruz, both for their first terms in office.

Also in attendance were State Senator Jeff Van Drew, State Assemblymen Robert Andrzejczak and Sam Fiocchi, Sea Isle City Mayor/Freeholder Len Desiderio, Freeholder Kristine Gabor, County Clerk Rita Fulginiti, County Sheriff Gary Schaffer, and Millville Vice-Mayor Jim Quinn.

The Mayor gave his annual State of the Borough address. (see attached)

“Having such a show of support from our community despite the cold and unusual time was heartening and a tribute to the Lt. Governor,” added Mayor Pikolycky.
