

PRESS RELEASE

CONTACT: Mayor's Office
861-5301

1 April, 2016

WOODBINE CELEBRATES MAYORS DAY OF RECOGNITION FOR NATIONAL SERVICE FOR FOURTH YEAR

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Borough of Woodbine celebrated its fourth annual Mayors Day of Recognition for National Service on April 5, and honored Woodbine's RSVP volunteers during the Borough's Health and Wellness Fair at the Woodbine Community Center on April 4.

The Mayor presented a Proclamation (attached) in honor of the day.

The Borough of Woodbine has twelve area residents who are Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) volunteers. Serving on the RSVP Cape May County Advisory Council are Evelyn Perez (Executive Director of the Woodbine Municipal Alliance), Sheila Harris (Southern Regional Coordinator of the New Jersey Foster Grandparent Program), Borough employee Gloria Blakey.

Serving at the Community Center are Pete Gilson, Paula Harris, Sharon O'Neil and Aida Soto. Also serving: American Red Cross: Elsie Swartz; S.W.I.M Program: Brenda Rickley; VITA: Mike Gaines and Jay Levin; and VIM: Evelyn Coleman. Additionally, Romonita Tirado and Rose Hudgins both serve at the Woodbine Elementary School under the Foster Grandparent Program.

"I wish to thank all of our senior volunteers, as well as all our other volunteers. Without the assistance of their donated hours so many activities and programs in the Borough would not be possible," commented Mayor Pikolycky.

(PROCLAMATION ATTACHED)