Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Borough of Woodbine, at its September 18 Council meeting, passed a resolution honoring Wildwood's Beth Judah Synagogue on its hundredth anniversary, which will be celebrated October 24 through 26.

As home to an even older Synagogue, Woodbine has a relationship with Wildwood that goes back to the turn of the last century, when the Jewish immigrants living in Woodbine sought summer business opportunities in Wildwood.

"We congratulate our Wildwood brethren on their upcoming anniversary celebration and during these New Year Days of Awe commemorate the important Jewish heritage we share here in Cape May County," noted Mayor Pikolycky. "We look forward to joining Beth Judah in its celebration of their milestone."
