

PRESS RELEASE

CONTACT: Mayor's Office
861-5301

11 July, 2013

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH FOOD DISTRIBUTION RELOCATES TO WOODBINE PUBLIC SAFETY BUILDING

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Community Food Bank of New Jersey food distribution site in Woodbine is being temporarily relocated from First Baptist Church of Woodbine's facilities to the Woodbine Public Safety Building (the former Ambulance Building) at 513 DeHirsch Boulevard.

First Baptist Church will be using the facility to operate a once-a-month community food distribution which provides non-perishable food products.

Distribution is done on the Third Thursday of the month from noon to 5 p.m. For more information and to register call 609-425-0636.

The Community Food Bank of New Jersey (CFBNJ) is an organization dedicated to fighting hunger and poverty in New Jersey by assisting those in need by filling the emptiness caused by hunger with the basic human essentials that people need to survive.

"We are glad to be able to partner with First Baptist Church and the Community Food Bank of New Jersey by leasing space for this important service," added Mayor Pikolycky.