FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF WOODBINE RESUMES MONTHLY FOOD DISTRIBUTION

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that First Baptist Church Food Bank will be resuming their monthly distribution from the Woodbine Public Safety Building at 513 DeHirsch Boulevard (old Ambulance Corps) as of Thursday June 18, from noon to 4 pm.

The Community Food Bank of New Jersey (CFBNJ) is an organization dedicated to fighting hunger and poverty in New Jersey by assisting those in need by filling the emptiness caused by hunger with the basic human essentials that people need to survive.

“First Baptist Church uses the facility to operate a once-a-month community food distribution which provides non-perishable food products. Renovations have been completed under our recent USDA grant and we are pleased to see this effort resume,” commented Mayor Pikolycky. “We continue to thank USDA for providing us with the funding to make the necessary changes to facilitate this worthwhile effort.”
