COUNTY LIBRARY PROGRAM TO BE HELD AT WOODBINE COMMUNITY CENTER

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Cape May County Library Program “Folk Songs with Grandfather Joe” will now take place at the Woodbine Community Center, 812 Longfellow Street, on June 30 from 10 to 11 a.m.

A family fun time of singing, laughing, and puppets, Grandfather Joe joins us for a singing good time. All ages will love Grandfather Joe and his fun songs.

“Fortunately this program was able to be moved to our Community Center with the support of our Recreation Commission, as it is occurring during the approximately two-week period that the Woodbine Branch of the County Library (along with the Woodbine School Complex) is closed due to renovation work at the school,” commented Mayor Pikolycky. “So come enjoy this start-of-summer program at our air-conditioned Community Center.”

For information call the County Library at 463-6350.
