

PRESS RELEASE

CONTACT: Mayor's Office
861-5301

1 June, 2007

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that Stephanie Fowle of the Girl Scouts of the South Jersey Pines has informed him of several free summer programs the Girl Scouts, in partnership with local organizations, will be hosting in Woodbine this summer for girls of this and neighboring communities.

“Princess for a Day”, open to all girls ages 7 to 12, will be held at the Cape Human Resources-Woodbine Service Center, 406 Monroe Avenue, on July 10 from 1 to 3 p.m.

“Ready Set Go....Outside Fun!”, open to all girls ages 7 to 12, will be held at the Puerto Rican Action Committee Office, 604 Franklin Street, on July 16, 17, and 18 from 1 to 3 p.m.

“United States Coast Guard Base and Boat Tour”, open to all girls ages 7 to 15, will be July 27 from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., with the van leaving at 8:30 a.m. Free transportation is being provided by PRAC; bring a bag lunch.

“Fun Day at the Spa”, open to all girls ages 6 to 15, will be held at the Woodbine Wellness Center, 534 Washington Avenue, on August 9 from 1 to 3 p.m.

Join the fun by calling 800-582-7692 ext.152 to register. Space is limited, so call now.

“I would like to commend the Girls Scouts of the South Jersey Pines and the various local organizations partnering with them for providing these opportunities to the young ladies of our local area,” commented Mayor Pikolycky.