Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that Horace Youmans will be sworn in on August 12, at 2 p.m., as Woodbine Borough Councilman, to fill out the term vacated by Gerald Sanford until the November election. Youmans was appointed to this position by the Borough Council at their July meeting. The winner of the November election will complete the approximately fourteen months remaining on Sanford's term. The swearing in will take place at the Woodbine Municipal Building, 501 Washington Avenue, Woodbine.

Youmans ran as an Independent candidate for Borough Council in the 2006 election. He is a long-time resident of Woodbine, and had served as Woodbine Board of Education member and President and currently serves on the Woodbine Municipal Utilities Authority.

All are invited to the swearing-in ceremony.
