

MEDIA ADVISORY

Mayor William Pikolycky Elected NJLM 3rd Vice President

Trenton, NJ – Mayor William Pikolycky of Woodbine is the new 3rd Vice President of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities. Mayor Pikolycky was elected at the League of Municipalities' Annual Business Meeting during the Virtual Conference.

As 3rd Vice President of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities, Mayor Pikolycky will help lead the Association of New Jersey's 565 municipal governments. He will represent the interests and needs of New Jersey's local elected officials to county, state, and federal governments.

Has served was first elected Mayor of Woodbine in 1990. Mayor Pikolycky began his public service in 1979 when he was elected to the Woodbine Borough Council. He is Chair of the Pinelands Municipal Council and a member of the Pinelands Commission. He is on the Board of Trustees for Sustainable Jersey. He is an Executive Board member of the New Jersey League of Municipalities. He has been a member of the New Jersey Water Association since 1991. He has also been involved with the MidAtlantic Pilots Association and the AOPA. He is a member of the New Jersey Farm Bureau. He served as President of the New Jersey Conference of Mayors in 2005, and now serves as a Director. He was also Past President of the Cape May County League of Municipalities. He served on the Board of Directors for the Sam Azeez Museum of Woodbine Heritage and is now on the Advisory Board of the Anne Azeez Instructional Site of Stockton University, which is also located in Woodbine. He is on the Board of Trustees of the Woodbine Developmental Center.

Mayor Pikolycky has been inducted by the New Jersey State League of Municipalities into the Elected Officials Hall of Fame and the Mayors Hall of Fame for his 30-plus years in elected office. The honor is reserved for local municipal governing body members and mayors who have served for a minimum of 30 years in elected municipal office.