WOODBINE CITED FOR THIRD LOWEST PROPERTY TAX RATE IN NEW JERSEY

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Borough of Woodbine was cited in an article this week in the Star Ledger as the municipality with the third lowest average property tax rate in the State of New Jersey, according to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs.

Woodbine actually had an average decrease of $14 between 2013 and 2014.

“This certainly is great news. I was made aware of this while attending the New Jersey League of Municipalities Mayors’ Legislative Summit by the congratulations of my counterparts for this notable achievement,” noted Mayor Pikolycky. “It was nice to see Woodbine mentioned in the Star Ledger, which is recognized as the State’s official newspaper.”
