WOODBINE MAYOR PIKOLYCKY SWORN-IN TO EXECUTIVE BOARD OF NEW JERSEY STATE LEAGUE OF MUNICIPALITIES

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky, Mayor of Woodbine was sworn-in as a member of Executive Board of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities at their annual reorganizational meeting on December 1, 2016, at the Princeton Marriott.

Also sworn in at that time by Bridgeton Mayor Albert Kelly, President of the New Jersey League of Municipalities, were two additional new Board members Gayle Brill Mittler, Mayor of Highland Park (Middlesex County), and Daniel Flynn, Councilman, Newton (Sussex County)

As a member of the League's Executive Board, Mayor Pikolycky will help lead the Association of New Jersey's 565 municipal governments. Mayor Pikolycky will represent the interests and needs of New Jersey's local elected officials to county, state, and federal governments.

"I am looking forward to serving with the 25 Executive Board members/Mayors who represent diverse communities throughout the State," added Mayor Pikolycky.
