PIKOLYCKY PRESENTS PROCLMATION TO ADMIRAL YOST

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky had the honor of presenting a proclamation to Admiral Paul A. Yost (USCG ret.) on January 16, at a reception preceding Admiral Yost's Fireside Talk at the Cape May Branch Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Admiral Yost was the 18th Commandant of the US Coast Guard. He now serves as the United Nations representative for the Church of Latter Day Saints.

Three Woodbine natives of note served under Admiral Yost command: retired Rear Admiral David E. Ciancaglini, Retired Rear Admiral Fred Golove, and Retired Captain Paul Resnick.

Woodbine is the home of the Coast Guard Uniform Distribution Center, the sole provider of uniforms to the Coast Guard's members.

"It was informative to hear Admiral Yost speak and then to talk to him about these Woodbine native sons who served with him, and whom he remembers," added Mayor Pikolycky.
