

PRESS RELEASE

CONTACT: Mayor's Office
861-5301
26 March, 2007

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Woodbine Recreation Commission will be holding an Easter Egg Hunt for children from grades pre-K to fourth on Saturday, April 7, from 10 a.m. to noon at Woodbine's Lincoln Park. Pictures can be taken with the Easter Bunny for a two dollar fee and refreshments will be served. There will be three prizes: pre-K and kindergarten; first and second grades; third and fourth grades.

The Recreation Commission is also sponsoring an Easter dance on April 7 for grades fifth through eighth, from 6 to 9 p.m. The dance will be held at Woodbine Elementary School; admission is two dollars, and refreshments will be sold.

"I encourage our young people to come out and enjoy these springtime activities as they begin their spring breaks from school," commented Mayor Pikolycky, "We ask parents, grandparents, and guardians to join with the children during the Easter Egg Hunt."