Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Woodbine American Legion Post #298 will be holding a ceremony to dedicate its new flagpole and rotunda on Saturday, June 2, beginning at 11:30 a.m. The rotunda will be dedicated to the memory of William Zenyuk. Invited guests include Senator Nicholas Asselta and Assemblymen Jeff Van Drew and Nelson Albano.

“I encourage all members of our neighboring communities to join with Woodbine in this ceremony that honors our veterans and marks the beginning of an upgrading to the Legion Hall, this first phase of which has been done as part of Woodbine’s streetscape initiative and downtown renaissance project,” added Mayor Pikolycky.
