COUNTY LIBRARY HOLDING BEGINNERS MEMORY WIRE SEES BEAD BRACELET WORKSHOP AT WOODBINE BRANCH

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Cape May County Library will be holding a Beginners “Memory Wire Seed Bead Bracelet” workshop, open to both adults and teens, on Saturday, July 9, from 11 am to 12 pm, at the Woodbine Branch, located at 800 Monroe Street, Woodbine.

Bracelets are made by sliding beads onto memory wire loops. Participants will have a wide variety of small beads and charms to choose from when creating their own individual bracelet.

Materials will be provided and each participant may make at least 2 bracelets.

Participants are welcomed to use and bring along their own round nose and flat pliers to class along with a light colored fabric placemat to work on.

Maura McConnell-Sands, originally from Ireland, has been living in Ocean City since 2010. Her hobbies include jewelry making, pottery, shell crafts, knitting and crochet. She is a member of Ocean City Arts Center where she offers private Reiki Healing Sessions.

A non-refundable materials fee of $5.00 is due at time of registration.

For additional information please call 463-6386 or visit online at www.cmclibrary.org.

“We wish to welcome Maura McConnell-Sands to our Woodbine branch and look forward to seeing her here in the future for additional workshops,” added Mayor Pikolycky.
