NaNoWriMo Write-ins Scheduled for Woodbine Library

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Cape May County Library will hold “NaNoWriMo: Come Write-In”s at the Woodbine Branch, 800 Monroe Street, Woodbine, on Saturdays in the month of November.

The first Write-In will be held on Saturday November 7th and continue each week until November 28th. The Woodbine write-ins will be held from 1:30 to 4 pm.

November is National Novel Writing Month hence NaNoWriMo. The public is invited to attend: Bring a group of writers or meet up with our group at the library to power through your novel. Write as many words in your novel as you can while the clock ticks down to November 30th. Can you write that novel in 30 days?

National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo) is a fun, seat-of-your-pants approach to creative writing. On November 1, participants begin working towards the goal of writing a 50,000-word novel by 11:59 PM on November 30. Valuing enthusiasm, determination, and a deadline, NaNoWriMo is for anyone who has ever thought about writing a novel. This event is open to teenagers as well as adults.

For additional information please call (609) 463-6386 or visit online at www.cmclibrary.org.

“I am happy to report that Woodbine is one of only two branches chosen as a site for this Saturday Happening and look forward to seeing the great New Jersey novel result from this creative process,” concluded Mayor Pikolycky.
