CAPE MAY COUNTY LIBRARY HOLDING TWO-DAY MOSAIC SERVING TRAY MAKING WORKSHOP AT WOODBINE BRANCH

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that the Cape May County Library will be holding workshop at the Woodbine Branch, located at 800 Monroe Street, Woodbine, on Tuesday, July 14 from 3 to 6 pm on creating a mosaic fish suncatcher.

In this mosaic course, participants will create a fun work of art for their home. Come and join and create a unique, personalized mosaic fish suncatcher. With bits of stained glass, mirror, beads, and other interesting materials, use your imagination to design a serving tray that is a reflection of your own personality.

Presenter Michele Pasciullo is a graphic designer with an AA from Cumberland County College. A member of Ocean City Fine Arts League, she has displayed and sold her work at local shops as well as given home parties and workshops.

Class size is limited; therefore, registration is required. A $10.00 nonrefundable materials fee is due upon registration. For additional information please call 463-6386 or visit online at www.cmclibrary.org.

“I am delighted that the County Library is adding yet another “Mosaics by Michele” to continued offerings in Woodbine,” added Mayor Pikolycky. “Our local branch of the County Library has proved a priceless asset to the Borough and we are grateful that its presence and hours will continue.”
