Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that Woodbine's 2007 holiday parade was again a well-attended success.

Winning trophies were: best decorated fire and rescue—first place: Dennisville #2; second place: Cape May Court House/Middle Township

Best appearing floats: first place: 4-H bunny club; second place: Belleplain Emergency.

Other participants were fire and rescue from Heislerville, Port Elizabeth, Belleplain and additional Middle and Belleplain entrants. Floats included those from Dennis, Seaville, Woodbine Elementary School choir, Woodbine softball, Mayor and Council and Council families. Also participating were county Freeholders Director Dan Beyl and Sea Isle City Mayor and Freeholder Len Desiderio State Senator-elect Jeff Van Drew and Assemblyman-elect Matt Milam.

“And I also thank Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus for joining me in lighting the Borough tree along the bikepath,” added Mayor Pikolycky, “and thank the elementary school choral group for caroling after the lighting. I wish everyone a happy holiday season.”
