

SECOND ANNUAL KIDS CARNIVAL IN WOODBINE FEATURES VISIT FROM SUPERBOWL WINNER DWAYNE HENDRICKS

Woodbine-Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to note that success of Woodbine's Second Annual Kids Carnival, which was held on August 3, 2013, in Woodbine's Lincoln Park, the Borough's outdoor recreational facility.

The carnival included a variety of "picnic" food, games, prizes, pony rides, and music by DJ Jazmann. A major favorite was the water slide, always a pleasant treat on a summer afternoon.

Sgt. First Class Patrick McCarthy from the National Guard was on hand to provide information and play games with the youth.

Also present to speak with the youngsters was Dwayne Hendricks, former Giants defense tackle #74 who showed off his 2011 Super Bowl winning ring. He is engaged to Councilwoman Perez's niece Jessica Maria.

"I especially thank Councilwoman Mary Helen Perez, who sponsored this event for a second successful year, and also thank her mother Maria Cecilia for organizing the delicious food and Councilman "Chino" Ortiz for his support and donations," added Mayor Pikolycky. "Councilwoman Perez joins me in thanking all her sponsors, friends, and family who made this event possible."
