WOODBINE CELEBRATES WEEK OF THE YOUNG CHILD

Woodbine—Mayor William Pikolycky is pleased to announce that Woodbine will be celebrating the Week of the Young Child from April 15 through April 19, 2013, with a theme of “Early Years are Learning Years”.

Woodbine Elementary School District has planned a week full of activities to celebrate this very special event:

Monday, April 15: Fitness Fun Dance Party—1 to 1:30 pm; Healthy Snacks---1:30-2 pm (Theme: Encouraging Health and Fitness)

Tuesday, April 16: Painting a Mural; Pre-K Round-Up/Registration; Open House (Theme: Embracing Diversity)

Wednesday, April 17: Pre-K Round-Up/Registration; Open House; Buddy Reading (Theme: Teaching and Teachers Matter)

Thursday, April 18: Parent Play Day—1:30 to 2:30 pm (Theme: Play: Where Learning Begins)

Friday, April 19: parents/guardians of the pre-K through third grade students are invited to come for a small breakfast and to watch a short performance by the pre-K to third grade students (8:45 am)

“As we once again celebrate the Week of the Young Child with activities, I hope and encourage that a parent or family member of each child will be able take part in at least some of those activities,” added Mayor Pikolycky.”
